

Question: -for bid three- although straightforward and simple to compile a repair program for the timber piles, does the city want an engineering firm to compile plans with specifications for the piling encapsulation or may contractor compile a repair program on their own?

Answer: Please refer to the bid packet. If there are any special considerations for any bid, please specify them in the bid submittal.